St. Francis de Sales - Patron of MSFS

The SFS Academy is named after St. Francis de Sales, our Patron, who considered knowledge as the eighth sacrament. His patience, humility, meekness and gentleness won many hearts and so he was well-renowned as the 'Gentleman Saint'. For his remarkable contribution to the literacy world, in 1923, Pope Pius XI proclaimed him as a Patron of writers and journalists. The Missionaries of St. Francis de Sales (MSFS) also known as Frasalians, is an International Religious Congregation founded in France on 24th October 1838 by Fr. Peter Mermier, under the patronage of St. Francis de Sales. Fr. Peter Mermier founded the congregation of MSFS for education of the youth, parish mission and foreign mission. He believed that one has to be a mother to the pupil by tenderness and father by prudence.
